AT THE BOTTOM OF THE WORLD
—at the water’s edge, is a —
LITTLE CITY WITH A BIG HEART

Rated number 1 by Lonely Planet in their top 20 New Zealand attractions, Wellington is a compact city with a compelling mix of culture, history, nature and cuisine.

Fuel your days with strong coffee, wander through hidden laneways and discover New Zealand’s stories in interactive museums. Be inspired in theatres and galleries and fill your suitcase with new wares and tasty treats from the boutiques and markets.

Discover why Vogue dubbed Wellington ‘a locavore’s dream’ in the city’s restaurants, cocktail lounges and craft beer bars. Take a day trip to our neighbouring wine region and explore the city’s outdoor playground by bike, foot, boat or train.
1. Mt Victoria
   Take a walk to the top of the Mt Victoria lookout to soak up the stunning panoramic views and you’ll be breathless for all the right reasons! Enjoy the 360-degree views of the city and sea and get your bearings of the city.

2. Cuisine
   Wellingtonians are masters of smart-casual dining. For a memorable meal of locally-sourced produce and wine head to Monte Cervino on Tory Street, Egmont Street Eatery and Rita on Aro Street, or for cool and casual eats check out 1154 on Cuba Street or Press Hall on Willis Street.

   See Eat & Drink directory on page 59

3. Te Papa
   Discover why New Zealand’s incredible national museum, Te Papa Tongarewa, was named on Lonely Planet’s list of the top 500 places to visit on the planet. Entry is free and there are a variety of guided tours to help you make the most of your visit.

4. Freshly roasted coffee
   Wellington is a city that is fuelled by good, strong coffee. Order a tasting flight of flat whites at Flight Coffee Hangar on Dixon Street, a speciality filter coffee at Customs by Coffee Supreme on Ghuznee Street and a long black at Havana on Tory Street, where beans are roasted onsite.

   See Coffee Capital directory on page 54

5. Wellington waterfront
   Wander along the waterfront to soak up the views, check out the sculptures and enjoy a locally-made gelato from Gelissimo, Kaffee Eis or Carrello del Gelato. The colourful boatsheds make the perfect backdrop for holiday snaps or head to Oriental Bay for a walk on the golden sand beach.

6. Hannahs Laneway
   Home to artisan food producers, eateries and craft beer brew bars, this little laneway is a foodie haven. Sample award-winning peanut butter from Fix & Fogg, taste artisan bean-to-bar chocolate at the Wellington Chocolate Factory and munch on a salted caramel cookie from Leeds Street Bakery.
Weta Studio Tours
Go behind-the-scenes and experience Wellington’s movie-making magic with a Weta Studio Tour. Spend time in the company of hobbits, trolls and wizards, and see the exceptional skill that goes into creating the props used in The Hobbit and Lord of the Rings trilogies.

Wellington Zoo
Have a close encounter with a cheetah, handfeed a red panda or touch a tuatara at the magical and inspirational Wellington Zoo. Home to some of New Zealand’s native treasures and endangered exotic animals, Wellington Zoo encourages a respect for nature and a strong belief in the need for a sustainable co-existence between wildlife and people.

Cable Car
No visit to Wellington is complete without a ride on the bright red Wellington Cable Car. For just a few dollars, take the short ride from Lambton Quay up to the lookout, where you’ll find the Cable Car Museum, Space Place at Carter Observatory and the Botanic Garden.

Zealandia
Get up-close and personal with a three-eyed prehistoric reptile and New Zealand’s native birds at Zealandia, Wellington’s epic, predator-free ecosanctuary. Set in an idyllic valley just a ten-minute drive from the central city, or catch a free shuttle from the Wellington i-SITE Visitor Information Centre on Wakefield Street.

Local brews
Find out why Wellington is known as the craft beer capital and visit one of the inner-city craft brew bars to try unique brews and maybe meet a brewer or two. Check out Whistling Sisters on Ghuznee Street, Heyday Beer Co. on upper Cuba Street and Garage Project in Aro Valley.

IGNITE YOUR IMAGINATION IN THE
CREATIVE CAPITAL

Whether you like your art in galleries, on the street, up on stage, or somewhere in between, Wellington is the place for a culture fix. From movie-making magic to award-winning museums, world-class performing arts and thought-provoking street art, you’ll find plenty to inspire your creative spirit.

Visual arts
With over 55 galleries, you’re bound to find creative inspiration in Wellington: spend some time at City Gallery Wellington in Civic Square, the New Zealand Portrait Gallery on the waterfront, Toi Art at Te Papa, PĀTAKA Art + Museum in Porirua or The Dowse in Lower Hutt. Discover colourful street art and sculptures around every corner; keep an eye out for Instagram-worthy sculptures around the city including the iconic Bucket Fountain in Cuba Mall, Solace in the Wind on the waterfront near Te Papa and the Wellington Writer’s Walk along the waterfront.

Live events
In Wellington, there’s always a live performance on offer. The city is home to major national arts companies, including the Royal NZ Ballet and the NZ Symphony Orchestra and a vibrant theatre scene. Enjoy theatre at waterfront Circa, BATS and Hannah Playhouse at the top of Courtenay Place. Be spellbound by international productions and musical acts at the Michael Fowler Centre and the historic Opera House. Wellington also hosts an array of cutting-edge arts events including the World of WearableArt™ Awards Show (26 Sep - 13 Oct 2019) and the biennial New Zealand Festival (2020).
Storytelling city
Journey through the past and present in Wellington's acclaimed museums and heritage sites. Experience New Zealand's stories at the cutting-edge and interactive Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa, discover our city's history at Wellington Museum and the Petone Settlers Museum, and get a glimpse of our government at work on a tour of the Beehive and Parliament.

Movie magic
Discover Oscar-winning magic right here in Wellington. Visit the wizards of Weta Workshop on a behind-the-scenes Weta Studio Tour, explore film locations on a movie tour, or sit back and enjoy a film at the grand Embassy Theatre on Kent Terrace, which has hosted its share of glamorous red-carpet premieres. There are also plenty of filming locations to be explored around the city.

LOCAL TIP
“I love a Wellington art crawl - start with City Gallery Wellington, followed by coffee and cheese scones at Nikau Café in Civic Square, then stroll across the City to Sea Bridge to Te Papa's Toi Art.” – Kate S.
IMMERSE YOURSELF IN NATURE’S PLAYGROUND

Wheely fun
Explore the whole region on two wheels along the Remutaka Cycle Trail, which traverses Wellington, Hutt Valley and Wairarapa. For more exhilarating rides, hit Wellington’s mountain biking trails at Makara Peak Mountain Bike Park or Polhill Reserve. For tips on where to ride check out WellingtonRegionalTrails.com and call in to see the biking experts at Mud Cycles for gear hire.

Beaches
You’re never far from a great beach or swimming spot in Wellington. Sink your toes into the golden sands of Oriental Bay – just a five-minute walk from the city, enjoy a picnic lunch and a dip at Scorching Bay, watch the surfers ride the waves at Lyall Bay while you enjoy a coffee from The Botanist or Maranui Café, or venture north to the Kāpiti Coast, where you’ll find 40 km of beautiful and unspoilt beaches.
Nestled between hills and harbour, you’re never far away from the great outdoors in Wellington. Meet local birds amongst the bushy terrain that surrounds the city, hang out with tuatara in an ecosanctuary, or jump in, on or under the water.

Walk

Discover Wellington’s diverse landscape on the Northern, Southern or Skyline Walkways or explore the rugged South Coast from Lyall Bay to Owhiro Bay. Learn about Wellington’s fascinating Māori history and present day with a guided from Te Wharewaka o Pōneke. Green Jersey offer guided walks of a variety of lengths around the stunning region.

Wildlife

Thanks to the bush-covered hills and lush nature reserves, many native creatures call Wellington home. Spot tuatara, kiwi and weta on a tour of Zealandia, hang out with local birds on Kāpiti Island, or count the sunbathing seals on a Seal Coast Safari. Fancy more animal encounters? Take a trip to Wellington Zoo, or have a go feeding farm animals at Staglands Wildlife Reserve.

“Always take visiting friends on a walk along the wild South Coast to Red Rocks to see the seals (April – October). So close to the city and yet a world away.” – Amanda T.
Wellington’s reputation as New Zealand’s culinary capital is well-deserved – we have more eateries and bars per capita than New York City! Dine out at one of the city’s excellent cafés and restaurants, discover local wine and craft beer and creative cocktails at one of our bars, sip award-winning coffee and try some truly unique craft brews.

Cuisine
With more than 750 eateries, you’re spoiled for choice in Wellington. For restaurant tips see the directory on page 59, have a chat with the friendly team at the Wellington i-SITE Visitor Information Centre or ask your hotel concierge.

Plan a visit for August and experience the region’s cuisine at its most creative during New Zealand’s most epic food festival, Visa Wellington On a Plate (1 - 31 August 2019).

Brews
In Wellington you’ll find that coffee is more than a drink; it’s a religion. Stop by Customs by Coffee Supreme on Ghuznee Street, Flight Coffee Hangar on Dixon Street or Peoples Coffee on Lukes Lane for a cup of the city’s finest. Wellington has also been at the forefront of NZ’s craft beer revolution, thanks to a trail of specialist craft beer bars and clever brewers. Head to the Ghuznee Precinct for a concentration of brew bars, including Whistling Sisters, Fortune Favours and Husk. See page 56.
The balcony at Fortune Favours is the place to be on a sunny afternoon. Order up a charcuterie platter matched to Fortune Favours’ beer – and don’t forget the sunscreen!" – Anna C.

Flying visit

Getting to and from Wellington Airport is simple. Taxis to the city cost around NZ$35-45, or for a few dollars more ask the driver to take you on the scenic route around Wellington’s bays. Catch the Airport Flyer Bus, an express service that runs between Wellington Airport and Wellington Railway station every 10 minutes during peak times and every 20 minutes at all other times (and from Lower Hutt to Wellington Airport every 20 minutes). Fares to the city cost NZ$12, while a trip to the Hutt Valley will cost NZ$18.

Plan your journey

You can easily plan your adventures at metlink.org.nz, which has a handy journey planner as well as timetable and fare information for public buses and trains.

Pick up a Snapper card from the Wellington i-SITE Visitor Information Centre for easy discounted travel throughout the city and suburbs. Snapper cards cost NZ$10 and can be topped up for use on Metlink network buses (excluding the Airport Flyer Bus).
Wellington’s compact central city means things are often just a wander away, but if you want to explore a little further afield, you’ll be pleased to know that Wellington has an easy and affordable public transport system, too.

Spin your wheels

You can hire bikes from Fergs Kayaks on the waterfront and My Ride Wellington on Vivian Street, a popular way to explore the waterfront and bays. Switched On Bikes on Queens Wharf offer electric bike rental and guided tours of Wellington’s waterfront and bays. For a fun way to explore Wellington’s scenic waterfront, hire a quirky Crocodile Bike.

Daytripping

For a great day trip, catch a bus or train to Hutt Valley, Wairarapa, Porirua or Kāpiti Coast, or take the East by West ferry across the harbour to Days Bay and Eastbourne. If you would prefer to let someone else lead the way, book a half or full day group tour and explore the region and beyond. Have a chat to the team at the Wellington i-SITE Visitor Information Centre to see what the options are.
EXPLORE THE REGIONS

There are a number of day trips you can take from Wellington city. Explore the great outdoors, enjoy boutique shopping, sample culinary delights and taste the finest wine, just a short drive away.

- Kāpiti
  Escape to Kāpiti for its unspoilt beaches and warm coastal climate. Swim, sail and surf or just relax on the beach, take in the view and eat some fish and chips. Go on a trip to the Kāpiti Island nature reserve with Kāpiti Island Nature Tours and get up close to unique birdlife and native bush or explore the coastal tracks. See page 24

- Hutt Valley
  From the Hutt River to the bush-clad hills, Hutt Valley is home to some of the region’s best walking and mountain bike trails. The picturesque seaside townships of Petone and Eastbourne are also worth a visit, home to a bustling collection of unique cafes, boutique shops and art galleries just a short drive from downtown Wellington. See page 16

- Porirua
  Tucked alongside two beautiful harbours and a rugged coastline, Porirua is a playground for watersport enthusiasts. Just 20 minutes north of Wellington, the region offers a bounty of beautiful walks and cycleways. For a cultural experience, discover contemporary New Zealand and Maori art at PATAKA Art + Museum.

- Wairarapa
  Get a taste for fine cuisine and relaxation at one of the country’s top food and wine destinations, located just an hour north of Wellington by car or train. Spend a day cycling the country roads of Martinborough, stopping in for tastings at some of the 20+ vineyards, or head to the charming village of Greytown for boutique shopping and great cafés.

i-SITE is New Zealand’s official Visitor Information Network. In over 80 locations nationwide, friendly i-SITE staff provide visitors with comprehensive and up-to-date information, and a New Zealand-wide booking service for activities, attractions, accommodation and transport.

Head into another world at Staglands Wildlife Reserve and Café, a unique interactive wildlife park for all ages. Nestled in the Akatarawa Valley, there are no barriers between you and the animals. Pack a picnic or relax at the café. You can even charge your electric car!

Wander where over 100 wild kiwi roam the hidden Orongorongo Valley where generations have experienced their first overnight stay in tranquil native bush. Immersed in birdsong, the easy trail is a great day walk or overnight stay. Soak up the feeling of earning a hilltop view across Wellington Harbour or above a waterfall in forest—a world away, yet minutes from our neighbourhood.

Tunnel Gully Recreation Area is a local favourite for picnics, cycling, walking, and horse riding; it has it all! The Tunnel Loop Track shows off the 253m long Mangaroa Tunnel, built between 1875 and 1877. Seek out waterfalls and streams along the gentle Tane’s Track or take on Mt Climie for panoramic views of the Hutt Valley. It’s a 6km climb, but it’s worth it!

Pack a picnic and the family bikes for a day in Wainuiomata. Explore 16km of sheltered native bush trails at the Wainuiomata Mountain Bike Park, stop in for a coffee at Kotuku Café and then chill out at the summer pool. Heated pools, an outdoor spa and an open-air waterslide through native bush. Try out the mini-golf course and stay on for dinner with one of the pool-side barbecues.
Brewtown is a beer lovers dream with four great craft breweries within walking distance of the Upper Hutt train station. They’re serving up award-winning local craft beer and food matches to fill any appetite. Try “The Unit” at Boneface, or the “Supercharger” at Panhead. Grab some beer to take home at Kererū and Te Aro.

huttvalleynz.com/hikebikebeer
The Remutaka Cycle Trail runs 115km from historic Petone through Upper Hutt along the Hutt River Trail, over the Remutaka Rail Trail to Wairarapa, then along the wild coast to Wainuiomata.

Discover our neighbourhood and big backyard full of unexpected treasures on the way. Break your trip up into 1 or 3 days, or challenge yourself with a full day ride.

Only want to take on part of the Remutaka Cycle Trail? It’s easy with train and ride options in the Hutt Valley. Start by taking the Hutt Valley Line to Upper Hutt—it’s free for your bike in non-peak times. Fuel up at Cake & Kitchen opposite the station before riding the Remutaka Rail Trail. Ride up and back or over the hill to Featherston, where you can catch a train back to the Hutt Valley.

Relive the magic of Middle-earth in Kaitoke Regional Park. See the set location of Rivendell, part of Peter Jackson’s blockbuster trilogy, The Lord of the Rings, set in some of the region’s most pristine lowland rainforests. Pitch a tent and camp along the Akatarawa River, where a multitude of bushwalks await with swimming holes nestled next to ancient rimu and rata.
Take the number 83 bus from Lambton Quay to Eastbourne and Days Bay. Along the way you can stop off at local favourites such as Jackson Street shopping strip, Zany Zeus, The Dowse Art Museum and Queensgate. Play in the bays and then head back to Wellington city on the East by West harbour ferry.

hutvalleynz.com/easternbays
Have a mini beach getaway with a day trip to Days Bay and Eastbourne. Discover colourful cafés, boutiques, and art galleries as you stroll along the waterfront, ice cream in hand, taking in stunning coastal views. Get some beach time with swimming and sandcastles, or hire a kayak or SUP and paddle along the bays. Settle in for the long sunsets in Williams Park - a top picnic spot for locals.

Cycle the flat rocky shore to Pencarrow Head, to the 1906 lighthouse on the shoreline. You can also venture up to New Zealand’s first lighthouse built in 1859, once home to the country’s only woman lighthouse keeper. You’ll be rewarded with vast views over Wellington harbour and across to the South Island. (16km return; 3–4 hr walk; 1–2 hr bike ride; e-bike hire available.)

Take a walk through lush native forest in East Harbour Regional Park, a welcome relief on hot summer days. Bushwalks for all levels of fitness are on offer; be sure to walk up the Main Ridge Track for epic views. At the end of the Pencarrow Coastal Track, discover the stunning Pencarrow Lakes, Kohangapiripiri and Kohangatera, and wetlands. After a day of adventure, it’s customary here to jump off the Days Bay wharf.
With two world-class arts centres to choose from, the Hutt Valley is a hive of creative and contemporary arts and exhibitions. Spend a day wandering the galleries of the Dowse Art Museum and Expressions Whirinaki, finding unique and immersive experiences for art lovers old and young.

Learn about New Zealand’s first bank, first horse race meeting and first newspaper on the free, 30-stop, self-guided Discover Historic Petone trail.

Petone is home to coffee roasters, food producers, fashion labels, craft beer, and more artisan products keeping the innovative early settler spirit alive. With more than 60 eateries in 800 metres, Petone’s Jackson Street offers a smorgasbord of diverse cuisines. Specialist stores from around the globe offer you everything you need for an incredible picnic, the tools to create it, and the tableware to serve it.

From unique textiles and homewares to hand-crafted furniture and beauty products, you’ll find it all in the Hutt Valley. Wander down Main Street in Upper Hutt to discover unique boutique and independent stores including Created, Avison’s Home & Giftware, and Botanical Beauty Co. For big city and international brands head into Queensgate Shopping Centre in Lower Hutt.
From fine dining to fish and chips on the beach, you'll find a variety of eating out options in Kāpiti.

The Salt and Wood Collective is a local craft brewery offering barbecue food from their on-site smoker oven, 11 Ngaio Road, Waikanae.

Brunch and Burger is a lovely retro café at Paraparaumu Beach. It's an ideal place for families and has a menu full of funky, fresh options that'll suit everyone, 44 Seaview Road.

Indulge in your favourite coffee/tea and slices at Ruth Pretty's The Garden Room set in the Te Horo countryside, 41 School Road, Te Horo.

Check out the amazing world-class car collection at Southward Car Museum. Home to over 400 vehicles, the museum is one of the largest in the Southern Hemisphere.

If you feel like getting active, there are plenty of outdoor adventures to choose from: take in breathtaking views from the top of the Paekākāriki Escarpment Track or go for a hike in the Tararua Forest Park.

Enjoy a simple family day out at Waikanae Pool enjoying the sun and cooling down with a locally-made real fruit Paekākāriki Pops ice-block - the perfect end to your day.
Stretching along 40kms of expansive white sand beaches, Kāpiti is named for the beautiful and iconic Kāpiti Island. With a mild climate, Kāpiti offers year-round relaxation, or more adventurous activities. Swimming, cycling, golfing, horseriding, picturesque countryside, stunning bush and birdlife, plus all the indulgence you crave with boutique shopping, amazing arts and crafts and delicious local food and hospitality. All just a 40 minute drive from Wellington.

SHOP

Spend a relaxing day shopping in the villages along the Kāpiti Coast. Browse beautiful boutiques, peruse quirky vintage stores and shop ‘till you drop for well-priced, well-known brands at Ōtaki’s outlet stores. Raumati’s Margaret Road is a destination for Wellington shoppers and visitors alike.
